A Message from Bishop Toal to the Diocese of Motherwell in Preparation for the Holy Season of Lent

On Ash Wednesday, March 6th, we begin the Holy season of Lent, a time of personal conversion and spiritual renewal. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, for that matter, are not Holydays of Obligation, and yet they clearly mean a great deal to the faithful of the Catholic Church, evident in the large numbers who attend the liturgy. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of Fasting and Abstinence and members of the church over the age of 14 years are obliged to keep these days in accordance with the Church's laws on fasting and abstinence, namely eating a simple meal and avoiding eating meat.

On Ash Wednesday ashes are blessed and the foreheads of the faithful are marked with these ashes as a sign of repentance for sin and a desire to live the Gospel message with stronger conviction and devotion, while acknowledging our mortality and the realisation that we will give an account of ourselves to God when life on this earth ends.

On Ash Wednesday we are exhorted to take up the traditional Lenten disciplines of Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving and to persevere in keeping them through the 40 days of Lent. The proclamation of the Word of God in the Readings provided for Mass on Ash Wednesday is a vital part of the Church's instruction on this day and indeed the Lord's own expectation on Prayer, fasting and Almsgiving. The Faithful most commonly receive the ashes during Mass on this special day. When it is not possible to attend Mass the blessed ashes may be placed on the foreheads of the faithful in a service in which the Word of God is proclaimed and prayers are said communally.

Since there is a strong penitential aspect to Ash Wednesday it should be a day on which the faithful are exhorted to renew their sorrow for sin and resolve to confess their sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation during lent. Only then, after making their confession, should those who have absented themselves from going to Mass receive the Holy Eucharist. It rather defeats the purpose of Ash Wednesday if people presume they can receive Holy Communion without first of all going to confession to confirm their desire to practice their faith in the manner the church asks of us all.

In the Catholic Church in Scotland we are encouraged to support the Church's International Aid Fund (SCIAF) as part of our Lenten Almsgiving. The Faithful are exhorted therefore to pick up a "Wee Box" and fill it up through Lent.

I wish everyone a blessed Ash Wednesday and a spiritually fruitful Lent.

Bishop of Motherwell

A Message from The Traidcraft Group: The good news as some of you may already know is that Traidcraft PLC will remain open but with a much reduced staff and capacity. They will be selling a reduced range of food and only a few crafts. The not so good news is that the parish Traidcraft group has decided to call it a day and so our last coffee morning will take place during Fairtrade Fortnight, on Sunday 10th March. The coffee mornings have been running for over 20 years and we would like to thank everyone who has supported us in any way during this time; thanks also to the parish which provided the hall, heating and lighting, free of charge during these 20 years. We would ask that you keep the many producers who used to supply Traidcraft in your prayers. Please join us for our final Traidcraft coffee morning and look out for lots of bargains and surprises!
